

Appalachian Treasures Quilt Show
Appalachian Maker's Market
August 26 and 27, 2022
2022 Theme – Log Cabin

The goal of “Appalachian Treasures Quilt Show” is to showcase the traditional art of quilting by providing a place for today’s quilters to display their work with pride and satisfaction. Additionally, the show allows the quilters to sell their work if they so desire.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

This year’s quilt show will be held in the Beckley-Raleigh County Convention Center. No quilt receiving an award in a previous year may be entered for judging except for Theme Category. Ribbons for first, second, third place, and honorable mention may be awarded in each category. In addition, Best of Show, Judge’s Choice, Best Use of the Color Orange, and People’s Choice will be awarded a ribbon as well as a gift certificate.

The theme category for the 2022 show is Log Cabin.

Due to space limitations each entrant is limited to 2 (two) bed sized quilts. There is no limit to other entries. An entry fee of $5.00 per item is required. Make checks payable to ATQS. Please return entry forms A, B and C, story documentation and entry fee by August 1, 2022. Mail them to: Appalachian Treasures Quilt Show, ATTN: Gail McCray, 111 Quesenberry St., Beckley, WV 25801. Gail can be reached at 304-253-0524 for any questions regarding this application.

QUILT DOCUMENTATION

You are encouraged to submit the “story” of each quilt item you enter. This documentation could include motivation, source of fabric (if historical), color choice, if it was started by someone else, etc. People who view the quilts enjoy knowing this type of information and we believe it is an interesting addition to the show. Your “story” will be printed to a standard size for uniformity in display. Print clearly or type your story on an 8 ½” x 11” sheet of paper. Each story must be limited to one page. Make sure the following information is on the top of the paper: QUILT DOCUMENTATION, quilter’s name and quilt name. It is not guaranteed that a story received after August 1 will be printed and hung on the quilt.
